Dear Paddy -

I was delighted to receive your wonderful letter and to know that things are well under way for a $\frac{1}{4}$ century Wootenancy ~~man~~ as no doubt you have surmised conflicting commitments have been responsible for the delay in writing to you. I had hoped to clear the time. Paddy will be glad to do whatever I can by remote control but I doubt if he will be able to be in town. Last year we had the big M.E.S. get-together over the 24th or thereabouts as 415 Yonge Street was due to disappear - also both Mary & Hamilton and Charlotte could come — the year

before was a class
re-union (20 yrs) —
& prior to that a
(10 yrs) so I didn't save the 24th holiday
this year — —

Do keep me posted though — I'd clearly love to see you all Ever

METROPOLITAN TORONTO'S DISTINCTIVE ESTATE HOTEL
AT SCARBOROUGH, ON LAKE ONTARIO
TORONTO, CANADA

The central building of The Guild Inn, facing over the broad expanse of Lake Ontario. Other major buildings are The Studio, Corycliff Lodge, and Guildwood Hall. The Guild is recommended by the AAA, Duncan Hines, The Diners' Club, the best tourist guides and Travel Agents.

The Guild Inn, located on Lake Ontario, in the eastern area of Metropolitan Toronto, is one of Canada's most delightful tourist attractions. Its 60 acres of woods, lawns and gardens extend half a mile along the Scarborough Bluffs which rise 200 feet from the lake. The setting is unique among major cities and one of the most memorable. The mist of Niagara is frequently visible some fifty miles away.

With accommodation for 100 house-guests in an atmosphere of country-club charm, The Guild has long enjoyed an outstanding reputation for its dining rooms and its courteous service.

Conference groups, banquets and wedding receptions are always popular at The Guild. The Guildwood Hall and Studio Buildings have been specially designed and are ideal settings for these purposes.

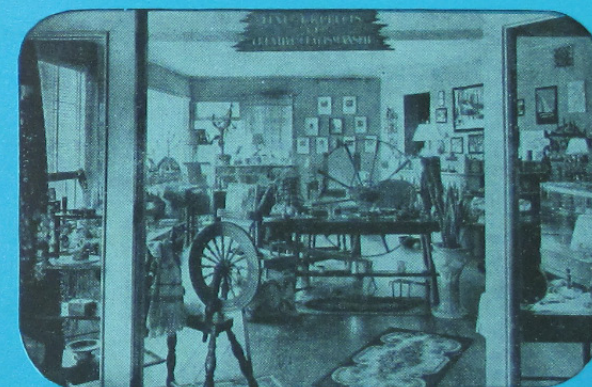

ATTRACTIONS AT THE GUILD

A new swimming pool of free-form design in a garden setting, with spacious patio, deckchairs and lawns for sunning. A swan fountain, with a hundred streams of water, illuminated nightly, playing on a sculptured swan from the Royal Academy. The Garden Maze, a replica of the famous maze at Hampton Court Palace, England — 5,000 cedars forming nearly half a mile of inner walks. Arts and crafts abound at The Guild. Canadian crafts and art works from other lands, with outdoor statuary. Craft display shop, where one finds unusual gifts. Children's playhouse, a miniature French-Canadian chalet. The great ravine and lakeshore, which the adventurous can explore, to see the magnificent Bluffs from below.

The south walk, with the swan fountain

The Craft Shop with its intriguing collection of Canadian crafts and gifts from abroad.

The shoreline of The Guild Estate attracts many artists - - amateur and professional.

Recreational facilities include shuffleboard, swimming pool, tennis, woodland walks, and nearby golf courses.

I think a cold lunch is sufficient - especially when we will be having a hot dinner. I have checked the chicken
salad - as some people are allergic to seafood.

If you think hot food would be better - perhaps creamed chicken -

I also think that a Canadian Sherry (Chateau-Gai - Private Stock) is as good as imported & cheaper -

I think if menu is decided - it makes for faster service
